

Tribunal findings

Updated 25 November 2019

Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal findings and orders

The Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal (SDT) is independent [\[https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/using-solicitor/legal-jargon-explained#independent\]](https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/using-solicitor/legal-jargon-explained#independent), both judicially and administratively, of the Law Society [\[https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/using-solicitor/legal-jargon-explained#lawsoc\]](https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/using-solicitor/legal-jargon-explained#lawsoc) and the SRA, although its running costs are funded by the Law Society.

The SRA is responsible for most prosecutions [\[https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/solicitor-check/prosecutions/\]](https://indemnity.sra.org.uk/consumers/solicitor-check/prosecutions/) at the SDT. We are not responsible for the SDT's findings (written judgments) or its orders.

The findings of the tribunal are published on the SDT's website: www.solicitorstribunal.org.uk [\[https://www.solicitorstribunal.org.uk/judgment-search-results#search\]](https://www.solicitorstribunal.org.uk/judgment-search-results#search).

If you have any queries about unpublished SDT findings, please contact the SDT directly.

Please use www.sra.org.uk/sdt to link to this page.